Information for Authors

Aim and Scope

The Nigerian Journal of Technological Development publishes high-quality articles focusing on all aspects of Engineering and Applied Sciences. All manuscripts will be double blind peer-reviewed and if found suitable, published according to the subject matter, either as a Research Paper, Review Paper or a Technical Note.

Submission of Manuscript

Submission of manuscript is on the condition that it is an original work of the author(s) and it has neither been published previously nor currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. Authors should submit the electronic copy of their manuscript directly to the journal through the journal's website using the online submission system. Please do not submit a hard copy to the editorial office or send your manuscripts by e-mail.

After the manuscript has been submitted, you will see a confirmation screen and receive an email confirmation stating that your manuscript has been successfully submitted. If you do not receive this, your manuscript will not have been successfully submitted to the journal and the paper cannot progress to peer review. If this is the case your manuscript will still be sitting in the 'Incomplete' section of your 'Author Page' awaiting your attention.

To track your submission's progress through the review and editorial process, you will need to log into the journal website, and choose your role as Author. Click on the linked title to go to the submission record.

Preparation of the Manuscript

Manuscript should be written in English Language and typed in 12 point font size using Times New Roman in double spacing on A4 paper. A margin of 25 mm should be left at the sides. The paper should not exceed twenty (20) pages, including figures and tables. The manuscript should be organised under the following headings:

Title Page

The title page should contain only the title of the article, authors' contact details such as names, institutional affiliations, corresponding author's email address and phone number. The page is also to contain the abstract of the article. This should be uploaded as a supplementary document on the Author's portal. Please note that the article title should not exceed fifteen (15) words.

Page 1 of the Manuscript

The Page 1 of the main manuscript should contain the title of the article, the abstract, five or six keywords, and may include the Introduction Section, etc. However, it must NOT contain name(s), and address(es) of author(s), and e-mail addresses and telephone number of the corresponding author. These information will be supplied on the online submission platform in addition to the uploaded title page above. The abstract should not normally exceed 200 words in 12 point font size.

Keywords

Five or six relevant keywords should be provided on the title page.

Symbols, Abbreviations and Units

Symbols and abbreviations should be defined where first mentioned. If the symbols are many, a “Notation” defining the symbols must be included between the abstract and Introduction. SI units should be used.

Introduction

This should include the background to the study, a brief review of literature and clearly-stated objectives.

Theoretical Analysis

The mathematical principles or theories used should be included as appropriate.

Materials and Methods/Methodology/Experimental Procedure

This section should include apparatus and equipment setup, work materials, design, experimental methods, as applicable.

Results and Discussion

Results could be presented in descriptive, tabular or graphical form. Information presented in tables should not be repeated as figures. Discussion should be focused on the interpretation of experimental findings.

Conclusion

The conclusion should be a brief summary of findings. It should clearly state the contributions, relevance of the findings and recommendations, as appropriate.

References

The Harvard system (alphabetical listing) of referencing should be used in the body of the manuscript while only essential references must be cited and listed. Examples of citing references include: Omeiza (2012) or (Omeiza, 2012) as appropriate; Olaniyan and Oje (2002) or (Olaniyan and Oje, 2002) as appropriate; Ogunlela et al (2006) or (Ogunlela et al, 2006) as appropriate.
